Join your Fellow TRCC National Summit Attendees for an Impact Tour at Capital Area Food Bank

Discover how food can be a powerful tool to combat hunger and poverty and learn firsthand about the transformative work of Capital Area Food Bank during this Impact Tour. As part of our Impact Tour, you'll have the opportunity to volunteer at one of the region's most vital hunger relief organizations, helping to feed thousands of men, women, and children across the Greater Washington Metropolitan area. There is no additional cost to TRCC National Summit attendees to sign-up for this event.

The Capital Area Food Bank is the heart of hunger relief in the region, providing over 60 million meals every year. The Food Bank works with over 400 nonprofit partners, delivering food to communities across Washington D.C., Maryland, and Virginia. But it's not just about providing meals; the Food Bank is committed to tackling the root causes of hunger by developing programs and partnerships designed to help people meet their food needs today while also getting access to services that can help them build paths out of food insecurity tomorrow. Whether you're a first-time volunteer or a long-time supporter, the Impact Tour is the perfect way to see how your contributions help CAFB fulfill their mission.

Reserve your spot for the CAFB Impact Tour and become a part of the movement to use food as a powerful force for good. Whether you're interested in volunteering, learning more about CAFB's programs, or simply looking for inspiration, this tour will leave you with a deeper understanding of the change we're creating together.
